

JANUARY QUESTIONS

Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know
how you ought to answer each person.

Discussion Questions

We encourage you as you work through memorizing, to read these questions and ponder them. We would be delighted if you would bring some of your answers to share at the MLQ meet for Team Time!

Question #1

- What verse or passage that you've memorized this year has taught you something about God?

Question #2

- What about memorizing has given you joy or provided strength or encouraged you in your walk with God and in your daily life?

Group Prayer

- Take some time as a group in prayer.

"God speaks to us through His Word, and we respond to Him in prayer. Studying God's Word should not be merely an intellectual exercise but a practice that engages both our heads and our hearts. Therefore, our study of scripture should always be saturated in prayer from start to finish, and we should respond to what God has revealed to us by praying to Him. Not only can we pray in response to God's Word, but we can also pray the very words of Scripture back to God. Many parts of Scripture contain prayers that we can pray directly. Even parts of Scripture that are not explicitly written as prayers can serve to give words to our petitions."
